Her Excellency Delcy Rodríguez,
Acting President,
Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela,
Venezuela.

Through:
Her Excellency Capaya Rodríguez González,
Ambassador of the Bolivarian Republic of Venezuela to India.

Your Excellency,

We write to express our profound sorrow over the loss and suffering endured by the people of Venezuela as a result of the devastating earthquake that struck La Guaira State, on the north-central coast of Venezuela.

We learned through media reports of the powerful earthquake that occurred on Wednesday, 24 June, in La Guaira State. We were deeply shocked by the destruction and hardship caused by this natural disaster. This earthquake struck on the day marking exactly 172 days since the beloved leader of the Venezuelan people, President Nicolás Maduro, was abducted by the American aggressor. We believe that this natural calamity has placed an additional and immense burden upon the lives of the Venezuelan people during an already difficult period.

At this deeply sensitive moment, we, as Sri Lankans living thousands of miles away from Venezuela, wish to convey our heartfelt condolences and solidarity to the Bolivarian Government of Venezuela, to Your Excellency as its leader, and to all those who have been affected by this disaster.

We firmly believe that the Venezuelan people, who have historically demonstrated remarkable resilience and perseverance in overcoming adversity, will once again face this tragedy with courage and successfully recover from its consequences.

We also take this opportunity to express our appreciation for the humanitarian assistance and solidarity being extended by the leaders and peoples of various Latin American countries, who have come forward to support the Venezuelan people in this difficult time.

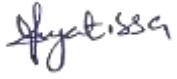

Finally, we sincerely pray that Your Excellency, as the leader of the Venezuelan people, together with the Bolivarian Government of Venezuela and all its citizens, will be granted strength, courage, and resilience to overcome this disaster.

Thank you.

Yours faithfully,

Dr. Wasantha Bandara,
Secretary General,
Patriotic National Movement.
